

COME TO STEWARDSHIP KALEIDOSCOPE SEPTEMBER 13-15, 2021
VIRTUALLY OR IN PERSON, SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Ready to travel again? 2021 can be that year you and some from your church's Stewardship/Finance Team attend Stewardship Kaleidoscope Sept 13-15 in Cincinnati, where you can attend either face-to-face or virtually. Why not brush up on best practices that invite your congregation to the spiritual practices of giving and of stewardship? I have been twice and I have always recommended it – believe it or not, it is actually fun and you will learn a lot.

Among the speakers will be Tod Bolsinger, author of Canoeing the Mountains, which many of us have read, and Aimee Laramore, who has served as Associate Director of the Lake Institute on Faith and Giving in Indiana. The worship leaders will be J. Herbert Nelson II, Stated Clerk of the PCUSA, and Rev. Elizabeth Eaton, Presiding Bishop of the ELCA. What an exciting lineup!

Scholarships are available that can pay for up to half the registration; see

<https://stewardshipkaleidoscope.org/conference/general-conference-information/>

<https://www.presbyterianfoundation.org/grant/?bblinkid=251364081&bbemailid=31537454&bbejrid=1972577727>

Costs: In person: 1 for $300, 2 for $550, and $200 for each additional person. Virtual attending is $115 per person, though not all the workshops will be available.

Please consider spending the money and getting several to go from your church – believe me, you will each get a lot of ideas and you will more likely implement these best practices in your home church. I think you will find it some of the best money you ever spent for a conference.

More info at <https://stewardshipkaleidoscope.org/conference/>
-- Kevin Jones, chair, Stewardship Team of Mission Presbytery